Welcome to the last decisive step before the French Cup!

*The M.F.R of Gionges is delighted to welcome you
during these few days and already
hope that you will enjoy this event in our beautiful region!*

Historically, the school's castle, known as Château de la Crolière, was built in the 18th century with stones taken from the old ramparts of the village nearby, Mesnil-sur-Oger. It passed through several successive owners until an American citizen, Miss Rose Dolan acquired it.

Miss Dolan, who was born in the US in 1895, came to France in 1917 as part of the American committee. The young woman became a driver to support the devastated regions of northern France during the First World War.

After the war, the American committee participated in the reconstruction of the Champagne Ardenne region, leading the young woman to stay in France until acquiring the Château de la Crolière in 1937. Afterwards, it welcomed children from disadvantaged families.

During the Second World War, she was arrested in 1942 and deported to Germany. The damage caused by the war was enormous, but the castle was able to reopen in summer 1946. Upon returning to the region, she offered to former soldiers to stay in the Château de la Crolière until 1954.
